Unemployment figures for June came in a tad higher than expected at 4.0% vs 3.8% expected, but still at a very low level. The Eurozone also released their first estimate for 1Q18 GDP as expected at 2.1% vs 2.2% expected, while the April unemployment rate remained steady (8.4%).

- Central bank interest rates: The Fed funds rate got hiked by 25bp in the June meeting to currently 2.00% with the Fed chair members implying possible further rate hikes this year. The ECB's tapered asset purchase program remains at EUR 30bln a month until the end of September 2018 and then at EUR 15bln until the end of 2018 when it is set to end. EM: China have their RRRⁱ at 15.50%, 12M lending rate at 4.35% and 12M deposit rate at 1.5%. India's repo rate is at 6.25%, Russia kept its key rate at 7.25% and Brazil SELIC at 6.50%.
- Capital market rates: 10yr US treasury yields saw some moves in July, but remained in the general range of 2.8% to 3.0%. The 10yr Bund low between 0.3% at the beginning of the month to almost 0.5% at the end of July. We see EUR bond prices as remaining supported over the longer term as QE continues at EUR 30bln/month until September and EUR 15bln/month until the end of 2018.

Tactical Asset Allocation

- Forex: EURUSD saw the USD remaining strong trading between 1.16 and 1.18 in July, keeping the currency pair in the 1.16 – 1.20 range. The median EURUSD forecast now predicts USD at 1.18 for the end of 2018ⁱⁱ and then up to 1.25 for the end of 2019.
- Bonds incl. High Yields (Nⁱⁱⁱ): Since near-zero/negative policy rates and negative real rates are seen persisting in Europe for several years, we continue investing in up to 2025 maturities of European DM bonds to improve yield.

- Equities (N): After the recent market correction and subsequent rebound, markets remain uncertain due to geopolitical trade uncertainties, with fundamentals generally still strong. We continue to observe markets closely especially as current news about the looming trade dispute between the US and China continues.
- Commodities (N): Crude Oil (WTI) retracted a bit from 74$/bbl to around 70$/bbl at the end of the month.
